(WASHINGTON, D.C.) -- U.S. Congressman Jason Altmire (PA-04) today released the following statement.

"All of America is proud of the brave men and women of our military and intelligence community who have once again proven that they are the most highly skilled, well trained forces the world has ever seen. America's relentless pursuit of Osama bin Laden has come to a successful conclusion, but we must remain vigilant and continue the fight against terrorist extremists, wherever it leads. At this moment of great military success and achievement, we will continue our equally important mission of protecting our citizens at home."
