

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) -- U.S. Congressman Jason Altmire (PA-04) will host two "Congress on Your Corner" meetings for local residents this Saturday, April 18. Altmire regularly holds "Congress on Your Corner" events throughout his district to talk to local constituents about their ideas and concerns.

Altmire's first public meeting this Saturday will be held from 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. at the Ferri Pharmacy at Town Center, located at 3907 Old William Penn Highway in Murrysville, PA.

Altmire's second public meeting will be held from 2:30 pm - 4:00 pm at the Northland Public Library, located at 300 Cumberland Road in Pittsburgh, PA.

"I know western Pennsylvania families are busy, so I try to host open meetings throughout my district so people can come talk me in person without having to travel far from home," Altmire said. "I am always eager to hear local residents' ideas and concerns, and I look forward to meeting with people this Saturday."

In addition to attending "Congress on your Corner" events, constituents can also contact Congressman Altmire's Congressional offices in Aliquippa (phone number: 724-378-0928), Natrona Heights (phone number: 724-226-1304) or Washington D.C. (phone number: 202-225-2565) from 9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday if they have any concerns.
