

07/18/2011

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Congressman Jason Altmire (PA-04), in conjunction with State House Democratic Leader Frank Dermody (D-Oakmont), will host three seminars to educate senior citizens on ways to prevent identity theft and other cases of consumer fraud. Officials from the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the Pittsburgh Postal Inspection Service will be on hand to provide information on ways to identify and avoid fraudulent offers and identity theft, particularly those targeting senior citizens.

No pre-registration for these events is required, and seating is on a first-come, first-serve basis. For more information, those wishing to attend the seminars may contact Congressman Altmire's Natrona Heights office at (724) 226-1304.

Note: Congressman Altmire and House Democratic Leader Dermody will not be in attendance.

WHO: Staff of U.S. Congressman Jason Altmire (PA-04)
Staff of PA House Democratic Leader Frank Dermody (D-Oakmont)
Federal Trade Commission Representative
Pittsburgh Postal Inspection Service Representative

WHAT: Seniors Seminar to Fight Consumer Fraud

WHEN: Thursday, July 21, 2011
10:00 a.m.

WHERE: Riverview Community Action Center
501 2nd St.
Oakmont, PA 15139

WHO: Staff of U.S. Congressman Jason Altmire (PA-04)
Staff of PA House Democratic Leader Frank Dermody (D-Oakmont)
Federal Trade Commission Representative
Pittsburgh Postal Inspection Service Representative

WHAT: Seniors Seminar to Fight Consumer Fraud

WHEN: Thursday, July 21, 2011
1:00 p.m.

WHERE: Plum Community Senior Center
499 Center New Texas Road
Plum, PA 15239

WHO: Staff of U.S. Congressman Jason Altmire (PA-04)
Staff of PA House Democratic Leader Frank Dermody (D-Oakmont)
Federal Trade Commission Representative
Pittsburgh Postal Inspection Service Representative

WHAT: Seniors Seminar to Fight Consumer Fraud

WHEN: Friday, July 22, 2011
1:00 p.m.

WHERE: Dalton's Edge Senior Living Community
700 2nd Avenue
Tarentum, PA 15084
