WASHINGTON, D.C. – Over the next week, U.S. Congressman Jason Altmire (PA-04) will participate in three AARP town halls in western Pennsylvania. During the public events, Congressman Altmire will address issues related to Social Security, Medicare and the current state of the nation.

On August 25th, Congressman Altmire will be joined by Congressman Tim Murphy (PA-18) at the AARP town hall. This event will be broadcast live on the Pennsylvania Cable Network (PCN). Members of the live audience will be allowed to ask questions of the panelists, but call-in questions will not be allowed.

More information on the town halls is available by calling Congressman Altmire's Aliquippa office at (724) 378-0928 or the Natrona Heights office at (724) 226-1304.
